

SUMMER GER CAMP ON FINANCE AND ECONOMICS

July 24 – August 4, 2006, Mongolian Secret History Tourist Camp, Mongolia

EPRC Project/USAID is organizing 2–week course on finance and economics for young Mongolian professionals interested in developing their skills in financial and economic analyses.

- Open for young professionals from private and public sectors selected through open competitive procedures
- Institutions or employers can nominate their candidates
- Experienced international faculty will provide theoretical and practical, hands-on instruction six hours a day
- The language of instruction will be English and simultaneous translation can be provided

Interested individuals and institutions should submit the following documents for application:

- Application form, downloadable from <http://www.eprc-chemonics.biz/suminst/>
- CV template, downloadable from <http://www.eprc-chemonics.biz/suminst/>
- More information and details about the course description, curriculum, venue, and others can be found on the EPRC website: <http://www.eprc-chemonics.biz/suminst/>

Deadline for application: June 5, 2006

Interested candidates should submit cover letters with attached CVs to:
EPRC Project, POB 701, Central Post Office, Ulaanbaatar
Application can also be sent to recruit@eprc-chemonics.biz

